

Declaration of Interests

It is vital that governors and staff act, and are seen to act, impartially. All governors (or equivalent) and Delegated Budget Holders are therefore required to complete a declaration of their interests. Declarations should include all business and pecuniary (monetary) interests such as directorships, shareholdings and other appointments of influence within a business or other organisation. They should also include interests of related persons, such as parent, spouse, child, cohabitee and business partner, where influence could be exerted by that person over a governor or a member of staff. Further guidance on this is included overleaf.
